Michel Bourque

CHAIR, BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Michel Bourque has been a director of Centre for Sexuality since 2017 and became the Chair of the Board of Directors in June 2019. Michel holds undergraduate degrees in finance and law, as well as a master's degree in law. Michel has been a member of the Law Society of Alberta since 1998 and has practiced at leading firms in Calgary since that time.

Michel is particularly committed to volunteer work in support of Calgary's gay and lesbian communities, having served on the board of the AIDS Calgary Awareness Association (now called HIV Community Link), an organization focused on health promotion and services for individuals and communities affected by HIV/AIDS. Since 2011, Michel has been an advisor to the Calgary Chinook Fund, an endowment fund of the Calgary Foundation, established to provide ongoing long-term funding of LGBTQ2 charities in Calgary and southern Alberta. Michel has also served in various director roles for the Mount Royal Community Association, where he lives with his spouse Bryan and their dog.

.

Centre
for Sexuality