

Sania Chaudhry

BOARD MEMBER

Sania Chaudhry is Conduct Counsel at the Real Estate Council of Alberta, prior to which she practiced in family and immigration law. She is also a current part-time student at the University of Calgary Faculty of Law in their Masters of Law program, with her research focusing on critical race theory and administrative law in the context of reasonable apprehension of bias.

Sania is also a current Canadian Bar Association (CBA) Alberta Board Director, Board Liaison and Past Chair of the CBA Alberta Equity, Diversity and Inclusion Committee, Member of the CBA National Equality Subcommittee, Board Director of the Federation of Asian Canadian Lawyers – Western Chapter, and Chair of the Alberta Chapter of the Canadian Association of Muslim Lawyers. She has written about equity, diversity and inclusion issues widely over the years. She was recognized in 2022 as a Top 30 Under 30 by the Alberta Council of Global Cooperation.

Centre for Sexuality

